

Mrs Betty Beebe
taught art at Hi School

Beebe, Lce

Star Route

Beebe, Reed

Box 187

Betty

654-2108

Mark, Shawn, Kim.

Ref: 1. HBUM pp627

Verna Berg
worked on scenery & costuming & displays

Jacob Arnold Bigler
studied in Paris & Europe

Christina Besendorfer, married Milton S. Rindskopf
 Walburga Besendorfer, married Ray Sperry
 Noah Besendorfer, married Nancy Ann Casper
 Ella Barbara Besendorfer, married Vincent M. Grass
 Nephi Besendorfer, married Leona Bennett
 George Henry Besendorfer, married Martha Day
 Magdalena Besendorfer not married.

JACOB ARNOLD BIGLER

Jacob Arnold Bigler was born of goodly parents, who were well to do people, on July 25, 1849, at Munsingern, Bern, Switzerland, to Maria Louisa Egger and Johannes Bigler.

When a young man he was sent to Paris, France, to finish his education as an artist. After studying for some time he left and came to America against the wishes of his parents. After arriving in America he enlisted in the US Army. At that time the Indians were causing a great deal of trouble in the west. He was among the soldiers that came to Utah to fight the Indians. It was while he was on duty at Mount Pleasant, Sanpete County, that he made the acquaintance of some of his countrymen, and through them learned of Mormonism. He later married two Mormon girls.

(1) His first wife was Pauline Ott, and the
 (2) second was Rosetta Krebs whom he married September 29, 1873, in the old Endowment House in Salt Lake City. Then with two teams and covered wagons they traveled south until they reached the frontier and wilds of Arizona among the Navajo Indians. He lived with his two families in that section for fourteen or fifteen years. During this time he was called with two other elders to work as a missionary among the Indians. He served faithfully in this calling for seven years. The hardships and trials of pioneer life in this frontier were extremely difficult.

During the years in Arizona eight children were born to his first wife, Pauline Ott. She was born January 6, 1853, in Unterlangenhart, Switzerland, the daughter of Heinrich Ott and Elizabeth Winkler. She was married to Mr. Bigler in the Endowment House in October, 1872.

Seven children were born to his second wife. Rosetta Elizabeth and Mary Louise at Tuba, Arizona. Charles Fredrich, Willow Springs, William Robert and Hyrum at Heber, Navajo County. Jesse and Alice at Shumway, Arizona. Then later after they returned to Utah, Roy was born to them.

His first wife and family returned to Utah first, and settled in Mount Pleasant. Three or four years later Mr. Bigler and one child, Lydia Springer returned to Arizona to bring the second wife and family to Utah. They left Arizona the middle of October, 1896, traveling by wagon with a three-pound baby only six weeks old, enduring many hardships before they reached Midway.

The family saw their first electric lights at Payson, Utah, and encountered the first snow they had ever seen at Provo, Utah. At Provo they were met by a friend, Ernest Kohler, from Midway with sleighs to continue their journey to Midway. They set up residence in the Snake Creek area near the Hot Pots Resort which was then operated by Thomas Monk.

Mr. Bigler was courageous and optimistic even in the darkest hours of his life. His nature as an accomplished artist led him to see and enjoy the beautiful things of life.

Children of Jacob Bigler and Pauline Ott:
 Marie Pauline, died in childhood
 John, married Ellzina Rosenloof
 Ellen Elizabeth, married Elmer Miller
 Lydia Rosetta, married Jeremiah Robey Springer
 Arnold Washington, married Sarah M Mower

Joseph, died in infancy
 Walter Henry, married Lorena Peterson
 Mary Louisa, married Clay Quinn
 Clarence, died in infancy.

Children of Jacob Arnold Bigler and Rosetta Krebs Bigler:

Elizabeth, married (1) Fred Hanney, (2) Willard Cox
 Mrs. Ernest (Mary) Kohler
 Charles, married (1) Martha Vail, (2) Virginia Martyn
 William, married Lena Epperson
 Hyrum, died in infancy
 Jesse, married Cora Vail
 Alice, married (1) Eli Corak, (2) Sam Colovich, (3) Ellis Epperson, (4) Vern Huffaker
 Roy, married Pearl Witt

Ref: HBUM pp 627, 702

JOHN BOND

John Bond was the son of Stephen Bond and Sarah Clark (emigrants from England in 1855 and 1860—who settled in Heber in 1865), was born July 29, 1871, in a one-room log house with a dirt roof built of green cottonwood logs, which was built in one day with the help of settlers. He worked at herding cows in the hills north of town for themselves and neighbors for 2 cents per day for a number of years, doing odd jobs, gleaned wheat, etc., for feed for themselves and their chickens and pigs.

His father died December 28, 1875, leaving his mother with six children (four boys and two girls.) Father died of pneumonia from exposure as guard in the Black Hawk Indian War. He attended school beginning at eight years of age.

He worked as a boy on Heber Moulton's farm for three years. Then he learned the photography trade in Wm. Willes studio for one year at $30. per month. Next he worked in Mark Jeffs store as delivery boy, clerk, and bookkeeper. It was there he met his wife Mary E. Jeffs, who also was a clerk. They were married in the Manti Temple by Anton H. Lund on May 24, 1892. He continued to work in the store and built the red sandstone house at about 55 E. 2nd No. St., in Heber, with the help of his wife, in 1892.

Henry Aird told him he thought he could pass the State Teachers Examinations and teach school, thus giving him the opportunity to get better wages. He did so and taught in Heber one year for $40. per month. Wallsburg offered him $60, so he taught there two years in a one-room log

p 276

BEAUTIFUL UPON THE MOUNTAINS

school house with 100 pupils enrolled, including two of the Trustees.

He was called to serve a mission in 1895 for the LDS Church to the Southern States, where he worked without purse or script until April 1898. Mary came in 1897 and spent five months as a missionary. After coming home, he went east and learned undertaking and embalming. On returning home, he practiced this trade until 1907, when he moved to Duchesne and homesteaded 160 acres. He stayed one year, and because Mary's health failed, they moved to Salt Lake City. He worked in Heber City as a carpenter for 10 years during which time he built the Heber High School of pot rock stone which Mark Jeffs had contracted.

He moved to Mesa, Arizona, in 1917 with his wife and eight children, and worked as building contractor and artist. Mary died from a stroke November 12, 1946. Children: John Wallace, Orvilla, Gladys, Velda, LeRoy, Emma, Mark, Ted, and Illa.

In 1947, he married Ezell Stephenson, a widow of Holden, Utah, who had four children, two boys and two girls. He served on stake Sunday School Board and as Ward Chorister for a number of years.

JOHN BOND

John Bond was the son of Stephen Bond and Sarah Clark (emigrants from England in 1855 and 1860—who settled in Heber in 1865), was born July 29, 1871, in a one-room log house with a dirt roof built of green cottonwood logs, which was built in one day with the help of settlers. He worked at herding cows in the hills north of town for themselves and neighbors for 2 cents per day for a number of years, doing odd jobs, gleaned wheat, etc., for feed for themselves and their chickens and pigs.

His father died December 28, 1875, leaving his mother with six children (four boys and two girls.) Father died of pneumonia from exposure as guard in the Black Hawk Indian War. He attended school beginning at eight years of age.

He worked as a boy on Heber Moulton's farm for three years. Then he learned the photography trade in Wm. Willes studio for one year at $30. per month. Next he worked in Mark Jeffs store as delivery boy, clerk, and bookkeeper. It was there he met his wife Mary E. Jeffs, who also was a clerk. They were married in the Manti Temple by Anton H. Lund on May 24, 1892. He continued to work in the store and built the red sandstone house at about 55 E. 2nd No. St., in Heber, with the help of his wife, in 1892.

Henry Aird told him he thought he could pass the State Teachers Examinations and teach school, thus giving him the opportunity to get better wages. He did so and taught in Heber one year for $40. per month. Wallsburg offered him $60, so he taught there two years in a one-room log

p 276

school house with 100 pupils enrolled, including two of the Trustees.

He was called to serve a mission in 1895 for the LDS Church to the Southern States, where he worked without purse or script until April 1898. Mary came in 1897 and spent five months as a missionary. After coming home, he went east and learned undertaking and embalming. On returning home, he practiced this trade until 1907, when he moved to Duchesne and homesteaded 160 acres. He stayed one year, and because Mary's health failed, they moved to Salt Lake City. He worked in Heber City as a carpenter for 10 years during which time he built the Heber High School of pot rock stone which Mark Jeffs had contracted.

He moved to Mesa, Arizona, in 1917 with his wife and eight children, and worked as building contractor and artist. Mary died from a stroke November 12, 1946. Children: John Wallace, Orvilla, Gladys, Velda, LeRoy, Emma, Mark, Ted, and Illa.

In 1947, he married Ezell Stephenson, a widow of Holden, Utah, who had four children, two boys and two girls. He served on stake Sunday School Board and as Ward Chorister for a number of years.

Anaconda, Montana, and Spokane, Washington.

Children: Clift Bond, Stella, Roberta and DeEsta.

JOHN BOND

John Bond was the son of Stephen Bond and Sarah Clark (emigrants from England in 1855 and 1860—who settled in Heber in 1865), was born July 29, 1871, in a one-room log house with a dirt roof built of green cottonwood logs, which was built in one day with the help of settlers. He worked at herding cows in the hills north of town for themselves and neighbors for 2 cents per day for a number of years, doing odd jobs, gleaning wheat, etc., for feed for themselves and their chickens and pigs.

His father died December 28, 1875, leaving his mother with six children (four boys and two girls.) Father died of pneumonia from exposure as guard in the Black Hawk Indian War. He attended school beginning at eight years of age.

He worked as a boy on Heber Moulton's farm for three years. Then he learned the photography trade in Wm. Willes studio for one year at $30. per month. Next he worked in Mark Jeffs store as delivery boy, clerk, and bookkeeper. It was there he met his wife Mary E. Jeffs, who also was a clerk. They were married in the Manti Temple by Anton H. Lund on May 24, 1892. He continued to work in the store and built the red sandstone house at about 55 E. 2nd No. St., in Heber, with the help of his wife, in 1892.

Henry Aird told him he thought he could pass the State Teachers Examinations and teach school, thus giving him the opportunity to get better wages. He did so and taught in Heber one year for $40. per month. Wallsburg offered him $60, so he taught there two years in a one-room log school house with 100 pupils enrolled, including two of the Trustees.

He was called to serve a mission in 1895 for the LDS Church to the Southern States, where he worked without purse or script until April 1898. Mary came in 1897 and spent five months as a missionary. After coming home, he went east and learned undertaking and embalming. On returning home, he practiced this trade until 1907, when he moved to Duchesne and home-steaded 160 acres. He stayed one year, and because Mary's health failed, they moved to Salt Lake City. He worked in Heber City as a carpenter for 10 years during which time he built the Heber High School of pot rock stone which Mark Jeffs had contracted.

He moved to Mesa, Arizona, in 1917 with his wife and eight children, and worked as building contractor and artist. Mary died from a stroke November 12, 1946. Children: John Wallace, Orvilla, Gladys, Velda, LeRoy, Emma, Mark, Ted, and Illa.

In 1947, he married Ezell Stephenson, a widow of Holden, Utah, who had four children, two boys and two girls. He served on stake Sunday School Board and as Ward Chorister for a number of years.

JOHN BOND

John Bond was the son of Stephen Bond and Sarah Clark (emigrants from England in 1855 and 1860—who settled in Heber in 1865), was born July 29, 1871, in a one-room log house with a dirt roof built of green cottonwood logs, which was built in one day with the help of settlers. He worked at herding cows in the hills north of town for themselves and neighbors for 2 cents per day for a number of years, doing odd jobs, gleaning wheat, etc., for feed for themselves and their chickens and pigs.

His father died December 28, 1875, leaving his mother with six children (four boys and two girls.) Father died of pneumonia from exposure as guard in the Black Hawk Indian War. He attended school beginning at eight years of age.

He worked as a boy on Heber Moulton's farm for three years. Then he learned the photography trade in Wm. Willes studio for one year at $30. per month. Next he worked in Mark Jeffs store as delivery boy, clerk, and bookkeeper. It was there he met his wife Mary E. Jeffs, who also was a clerk. They were married in the Manti Temple by Anton H. Lund on May 24, 1892. He continued to work in the store and built the red sandstone house at about 55 E. 2nd No. St., in Heber, with the help of his wife, in 1892.

Henry Aird told him he thought he could pass the State Teachers Examinations and teach school, thus giving him the opportunity to get better wages. He did so and taught in Heber one year for $40. per month. Wallsburg offered him $60, so he taught there two years in a one-room log school house with 100 pupils enrolled, including two of the Trustees.

P 276

He was called to serve a mission in 1895 for the LDS Church to the Southern States, where he worked without purse or script until April 1898. Mary came in 1897 and spent five months as a missionary. After coming home, he went east and learned undertaking and embalming. On returning home, he practiced this trade until 1907, when he moved to Duchesne and home-steaded 160 acres. He stayed one year, and because Mary's health failed, they moved to Salt Lake City. He worked in Heber City as a carpenter for 10 years during which time he built the Heber High School of pot rock stone which Mark Jeffs had contracted.

He moved to Mesa, Arizona, in 1917 with his wife and eight children, and worked as building contractor and artist. Mary died from a stroke November 12, 1946. Children: John Wallace, Orvilla, Gladys, Velda, LeRoy, Emma, Mark, Ted, and Illa.

In 1947, he married Ezell Stephenson, a widow of Holden, Utah, who had four children, two boys and two girls. He served on stake Sunday School Board and as Ward Chorister for a number of years.

Charles F. Buehler
(worked in oils & water colors)

Ref HBUM p 627

Joseph E. Clark

HEBER CITY — Joseph E. Clark, 43, died March 27, 1984 at Holy Cross Hospital in Salt Lake City, Utah.

Born July 5, 1940 in Heber City to Elliot H. and June McDonald Clark. Married Sharon Osher. They were later divorced. Member of the Catholic Church. Veteran of the US Air Force serving in Korea and Vietnam. Employed as Psychiatric Nurse at the Veterans Hospital in Salt Lake. Employed art and photography. Member of the American Association of Art Therapists.

Survived by children, Kimberly, David, and Christopher, all of Phoenix, Ariz.; Mother, Mrs. June Scarpower and sister, Mrs. Doug (Carol) Dockstader both of Payson, Utah.

Funeral services Friday 1 p.m. at Olpin Mortuary, Heber City, where friends may call one hour prior to services. Burial Heber City Cemetery.

T 3/29

N3 3/29

Joseph Clark

HEBER CITY — Joseph E. Clark, 43, died Tuesday, March 27, 1984, at Holy Cross Hospital in Salt Lake City.

He was born July 5, 1940, in Heber City to Elliot H. and June McDonald Clark. He married Sharon Osher and they were later divorced.

He was a member of the Catholic Church. He was a veteran of the U.S. Air Force and served in Korea and Vietnam. He was employed as a psychiatric nurse at the Veterans Hospital in Salt Lake City. He was a member of the American Association

LULA CLEGG

Lula Clegg, daughter of Fred L. and Emma Caroline Clegg, was born in Heber City, October 16, 1892.

Her first schooling was at the old Central School and at the Heber High School, from which she graduated in 1910. That summer she attended school at the University of Utah and took classes in preparation for teaching. She was 17 years of age when she took the teachers' examination and was granted a teaching certificate.

The first teaching job was at Wallsburg; the second year at Provo Bench; and the next six years at the Heber North School. She attended school each summer to improve her teaching and to work towards a degree.

In 1919, she was appointed Clerk of the Board of Education and Health Supervisor. The summer of 1924, she attended school at Columbia University in New York and took special training for the job as Elementary Supervisor. She acted as Clerk of the Board and Elementary Supervisor until 1942, when she was appointed Superintendent of Schools and worked in that capacity for eight years.

While in Heber City, she was Chairman

IV BEAUTIFUL UPON THE MOUNTAINS

of the Women's Division of the County Fair and had charge of parades and several art exhibits in connection with the Fair. She was prominent in the local Business and Professional Women's Organization and was elected State President in 1934-35, which necessitated travel all over the State in organizing clubs, holding meetings and attending conventions. She was Second Counselor in the Stake MIA.

Schools she attended were: Berkeley, California; UCLA, Los Angeles; Columbia University, New York; the University of Utah; and received a BS degree from the Brigham Young University in 1937 and a Master's degree in 1951.

After leaving Heber City, Lula and her sister Genevieve set up a Gift Shop and Art Gallery in Provo. They sold the business in 1954, and Lula accepted a position with the Extension Division of the Brigham Young University as Chairman of the Home Study Department. She has held the position for five years and will continue with the B. Y. U. until retirement.

Lula owns a home in Provo and has a hobby a beautiful yard and rose garden. Her nephew lives with her and attends school at the B. Y. U. Lula is energetic, progressive, and has made a name for herself as a member of the Brigham Young University Faculty.